

AzHOSA 2012 CENTENNIAL STATE PIN DESIGN CONTEST

Arizona is celebrating its upcoming centennial celebration by asking the Department of Education to include events in their conference this year and next year. You have the opportunity to design the Centennial ARIZONA State HOSA pin to be distributed at the 2012 National HOSA Conference in Orlando, FL in June.

Place your original design on an 8 ½" x 11" white sheet of paper and lamine it. Attach a label to the lower right corner on the back of the laminated design with your name, name of school, advisor's name and chapter number.

The pin should reflect Arizona's Centennial Celebration and AzHOSA!

Choose silver or gold metal for the pin.

- Entries are limited to 3 per chapter and must be submitted by January 30, 2012 (postmarked by midnight) and mailed to:

Arizona Department of Education
AzHOSA #42
1535 W. Jefferson St.
Phoenix, AZ 85007

The winning centennial pin design will be selected at the 2012 Spring Leadership Conference Annual Business Meeting by the voting delegates and the winner will be recognized at the 2012 Spring Leadership Conference Grand Awards Ceremony.
