THE LAST STRAW

DAY 5 (#SAVE THE TURTLES)

SUP Arizona HOSA, we can't believe ILC is already over! The closing session was unbelievable and we are excited for the New Executive Council. Although, we are sad to leave this humidity, it is time to go. It is time to take the many leadership experiences that we have had this week and apply them in our own chapters. If you have not already, please thank your advisors and everyone who helped you be able to have this experience. Travel home safely and we look forward to seeing you at camp in October!

Make sure to subscribe to the Synapse and follow our social media to keep up with AZ HOSA this year!

CONGRATULATIONS

Welcome to the final edition of Puns for Funs! Your officer board had an amazing time this week at ILC, and we hope you all had a similar experience. As always, our puns are bolded for your convenience.

Let your newly learned leadership skills and connections take flight as you travel back to Arizona and finish your summers.

We know you may have had a lot of baggage this week. Don't let lost luggage add to this. Put a luggage tag on all checked baggage!

If you were not a finalist, don't let those negative emotions take the stage. The connections you made, experiences you shared, and lessons you learned are far more important! It's called the "leadership" conference for a reason.

If you want to read a book on the way back to AZ, remember all new planes are pretty lit. (There is a reading light on above each seat).

Orange you glad you got to spend a week in Orlando, Florida! Your state officer team sure is!

We are sorry for punishing you all week with this feature.

We sincerely hope this experience suited you well!

If you have the nerve, please sign up for our newsletter on the home page of AzHOSA.org so that you can stay up to date with our monthly releases.

Pro tip for next year: buy your ticket ahead of time so that you can get in the door faster....wait that's a buyable idea!

To summit up, please attend our chapter leadership camp at the Camp Pine Summit in Prescott, AZ on October 3-5, 2019.

We hope you enjoyed the International Leadership Conference this week ! We are proud of all the hard work that you have done this week and we want to congratulate all of the members that placed. The conference has sadly come to an end, but have no fear because we are already preparing for a wonderful year with you. Make sure to take the survey on the HOSA app as national staff would greatly appreciate the input. See you at camp !
