Frequently Asked Questions

1. Can I bring any resources into the competition? No, you may only bring what is listed above - all study materials must remain outside of the competition room.
2. Will I be competing against post-secondary students? No, post-secondary students may have the same scenarios and skills but the scores are tallied separately and not ranked amongst the secondary students.
3. Will my regional score be added to my Round 2 Skills Score at SLC? No, Regional Scores are used as a qualifier and if needed as part of a tie-breaker in unique situations.
4. I forgot my supplies, can I still compete? Yes, see if there are any students from other chapters willing to share their supplies. If you still cannot find anyone to share, come and compete while verbalizing the steps in the skills.

5. Are the skills at SLC the same ones chosen for ILC? Not necessarily, different competitive event teams select the skills for the various levels of competition. You may get the same skill at each level.
6. Do the scores carry over from SLC to ILC? No, the scores do not carry on to the next round
